

LATTICE

Lattice is a finely detailed embossed leather distinguished by its remarkable depth and clarity. Its precisely interlaced pattern evokes the elegance of latticework and trellises—enduring architectural forms that bring structure and beauty to both interior and exterior spaces. A delicate, hand-applied finish lends a soft antiqued patina, imbuing the surface with a sense of history, warmth and lasting comfort.

Available in two classic colorways—Albicocca and Burro—Lattice reflects the character of traditional hand-woven leather, reminiscent of finely crafted Italian handbags and garments, while offering the strength and longevity required for modern upholstery.
